Brief Report	Kho-Kho (W) tournament hosted by Samadhan College, Bemetara, on November 13-14, 2024, witnessed enthusiastic participation from a talented group of players. Pooja Yadav (C) B.Sc III Year, Satya Dhruv, B.A I Sem. Ranju Sahu, B.A II Year, Payal Dhruv, B.A I Sem., Sumiti Nat, B.Sc I Sem., Ahilya, B.A I Sem. Domeshwari, B.Sc I Sem., Bhamini Jaiswal, B.Sc III Year, Likheshwari, B.Sc I Sem., Kuniti Nat, B.Sc I Sem. Sharda Sahu, B.A I Sem. and Priti Sahu, B.Com II Year represented the college in this fiercely contested event. Despite a valiant effort from the college players, they were unable to secure a spot for the state or university-level competitions. However, their participation served as a valuable learning experience, allowing them to showcase their skills and gain exposure to competitive Kho-Kho at the inter-college level. While the college team did not advance to higher levels of competition this time, the event provided a platform for players to hone their abilities and foster camaraderie among teammates. It is a testament to the college's commitment to promoting sportsmanship and providing opportunities for students to excel in various disciplines, including athletics like Kho-Kho.
Outcome	Despite not advancing to higher levels of competition, the tournament provided valuable learning experiences and promoted camaraderie among the college players.
